SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University freshman Brigitta Barta stole the show on Senior Day as she scored a game-high 26 points to help the Pirates notch their 10th straight win, downing Georgia College 86-79 on Saturday afternoon at Alumni Arena.

The Pirates (19-6, 14-5 PBC) now head into the Peach Belt Conference tournament knowing that round two against the Bobcats (16-10, 9-10 PBC) awaits on Thursday, March 6th, in the first round of the tourney in Columbus. The game time will be 1:00 p.m.

Barta had 12 points in the first half as Armstrong built a 37-34 lead at the break, but Georgia College's Brandi McKinney had 16 first-half points to help keep the Bobcats within arms reach.

The Pirates opened up the second half on a quick 8-0 run to build a double-digit advantage over the first two and a half minutes, 45-34, on senior Hanna Bognar's basket. Armstrong extended that lead to 18 points, 63-45, on a jumper by senior Mauri Wells with 10 minutes remaining, but Georgia College started its comeback by embarking on a 12-2 run over the next four and a half minutes to cut the lead to single digits.

The Bobcats would eventually get to within three points, 81-78, on an Abby Slocumb basket with 25 seconds left, but Armstrong would make five of six free throws to seal the victory. The 10-game win streak for the Pirates is the second-longest winning streak in Armstrong women's basketball history, behind only the 14-game winning streak during the 2002-03 season.

Barta hit 11-of-13 shots from the floor, including her first three-pointer of the season, to finish with her game-high 26 points. Senior Mauri Wells notched a double-double with 19 points and 16 rebounds - both season highs - while senior Tyler Carlson notched 14 points and senior Bryonna Davis added 13 points. Senior Hanna Bognar notched 10 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots.

Georgia College was led by McKinney's 23 points and Shanteona Keys' 22 points, 17 of which came in the second half. Enisha Donley chipped in 10 points as well.

At halftime of the men's contest, Armstrong honored its six seniors - Bognar, Carlson, Stephenie Coney, Davis, Morgan Mitchell and Wells in a ceremony as they played their final home games of their careers as Pirates.
